As Salaamu Alaikum,

I pray you are well, I am in receipt of the flyer for the upcoming rally in DC. It's about time Black folks start speaking out against Obama's policies. He has turned out to be a very big disappointment to say the least.

While I didn't expect a Malcolm X or MLK, Jr., I had hoped he would have at least made attempts to change the country's direction to one of peace and domestic prosperity by ending the senseless war, and etc. I see now that he is no different than his predecessors. Nor does he appear to be his own man when it comes to issues of substance as it affects his own people domestically.

Enough said, I just wanted to note that in the flyer there are no instructions as to where Malcolm X Park is or how to get there. Perhaps, you may want to post it on your website, etc. And redo the flyer for the benefit of those like myself who don't have access to the internet. On that note, I'll close out, and please give the folks a shout out for me. Lastly, we are working on publishing a booklet on forgotten Political Prisoners and Prisoners of War for my area. If they are completed by the rally, I will send them to DC.
